

The Lord Watches

1. 2.

chorus

The Lord watch - es, the Lord watch - es, the watch - es ma - zing grace how sweet the sound I once was lost but now I'm found I When I'm on my knees in prayer, When I'm in the street to share, Some day he will call me home Some day I'll no lon - ger roam

The Lord watch - es ov - er me The Lord watch - es ov - er me once was blind but now I see the blood of Christ has set me free ev' - ry - where that I will be the Lord, He watch - es o - ver me and through all e - ter - ni - ty He'll be watch - ing o - ver me

The Lord watch - es ov - er me The Lord watch - es ov - er me! The return to chorus

Traditional, arranged by J. Brian Craig (words vs. 2 and 3 by JBC)
 (words vs. 1 by John Newton, 1779)